Freakish Weather Criss-Crosses Nation; Mercury to Plunge

By United Press
Freakish weather criss-crossed the nation today, bringing the threat of a typhoid epidemic to Raymondville, Tex., and whipping flames anew in nine major California fires.

Meanwhile, from a record high temperature the mercury was expected to plunge 50 degrees to a record low in Chicago, and the first snowflakes of the season were reported at Cut Bank, Mont.

In Raymondville, flooded with 3 to 4 feet of muddy rain waters, health and disaster authorities warned that one case of typhoid could easily touch off an epidemic and urged residents to take typhoid shots.

"Privies are overflowing all over town and water in the whole city is contaminated," said Dr. Ebony Hein, county health officer.

There was good news in California, too. Cooling sea breezes were credited with snapping Los Angeles' worst heat wave in history Friday after it had caused 107 deaths and an estimated 25 million dollars' agricultural damage.

In Chicago, residents awaited a predicted 50-degree drop in temperature, firmly convinced that nothing is impossible any more. A hot wind blew up from the Southwest Friday and sent the Windy City's temperature soaring to a record 95.

But today, cold Canadian air swept toward Chicago, and the weatherman said he wouldn't be surprised if the mercury drops below the record low of 44 within hours this afternoon.

The cold air, swept along by strong north winds, already had invaded the northern Plains and central Rockies and dropped temperatures as much as 20 degrees.

Early morning readings dipped into the 30s in Montana, North Dakota and northwest Minnesota. City Bank, Mont., reported 32 and light snow early today.

Parachute Fails to Open, U. S. Pilot Killed in Far East
TOKYO (U.P.)—A U. S. Air Force F86 Sabrejet pilot was killed today when his parachute failed to open. The plane crashed into a rice paddy.

A Far East Air Force spokesman said the F86 was one of two on a "proficiency flight" from Johnson Air Base near Tokyo to Komaki Air Base near Nagoya.

The plane was circling to make a second try at a GCA ground controlled approach landing at Komaki when the pilot bailed out. The second plane landed safely.

Follows Charge Of Atrocities By Red Soldiers

Diplomatic Kid Gloves Taken Off During Conference

MOSCOW (U.P.)—West German and Russian leaders engaged in a name-calling brawl today touched off by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's charge that Soviet soldiers committed atrocities in Germany at the end of World War II.

Leaders of the two delegations took off their diplomatic kid gloves in the second day of the historic West German-Soviet conference here.

The grim-faced Adenauer told the Russian leaders to their faces that Soviet troops committed atrocities in Germany.

Soviet Communist Party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev snapped back that this was an "offensive remark."

The Soviets turned down flatly Adenauer's demands for release of German war prisoners.

They told the chancellor that if he attempted to negotiate "from a position of strength" in Moscow, "there is no point in further negotiations."

Soviet Premier Marshall Nikolai Bulganin told Adenauer flatly there were no "so-called German prisoners of war." Instead, he said, there are 9,626 "war criminals" whose conviction by Soviet courts was "really an act of humanity."

Say All German POWs Home
Bulganin said that "all German prisoners of war have been released and sent home to their motherland."

Bulganin began today's session by turning down Adenauer's demand for release of German war prisoners.

He also told Adenauer that German rearmament was not possible "in the near future" because of West Germany's membership in NATO and the West European Union.

Woman's Mind Blanks Out Temporarily Here
A woman with seven children whose mind went blank was questioned for several hours before they could find out who she was and where she lived.

City police were called to the Harrisburg drive-in theatre because the woman, who had driven to the show with her seven small children, could not remember her name, where she lived or how she got there.

Police and Sheriff William T. Barrett questioned her at the city hall but got most of their information from the oldest child, an eight-year-old girl.

Finally the woman began remembering things and was able to give her name and where she lived—near Brownfield in Pope county. But she said she could remember nothing of the auto trip to Harrisburg and the visit to the drive-in theatre.

Neighbors then were called by the officers and they came here to get her and the children.

The woman's husband is away working, it was learned.

Girl Rides Off With Another, Boy Kills Self
WAUKEGAN, Ill. (U.P.)—A 16-year-old boy committed suicide by taking rat poison after his girl friend rode off on a motorcycle with an older man and didn't return, police said today.

The boy, Larry Dalton, Zion, Ill., died in St. Therese's Hospital Friday 25 hours after he collapsed while talking to police about the girl, 16-year-old Rosalie Major.

Police described the girl as "well built" and "mature for her age." They said the man she ran off with was about 24 years old.

In the hospital, the boy told Deputy Sheriff Hugh Kennedy of Lake County that he took the rat poison about two hours before his collapse.

Kennedy said Dalton told him he took only a teaspoon of the poison, thinking it would make him temporarily ill and show the girl how much he loved her.

A note, found in the youth's pocket, read:

"Maybe I am wrong in doing this, but it is the only way I see. I've never been wanted or cared for except by Myrae and Ivy and I thought that Rosalie cared for me, but now I know.

"Good luck to you all, and God bless you. I love you forever, Larry."

Myrae and Ivy are the boy's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Price, Zion, with whom he lived. Kennedy said Dalton's mother lives in Chicago and is remarried, and that his father apparently is dead.

Former Mt. Vernon Bank Official Fined For Embezzlement

DANVILLE, Ill. (U.P.)—Harry Williamson, 33, former Mount Vernon bank vice president, was fined $1,000 and placed on probation Friday after pleading guilty to embezzling $3,000 from the First National Bank of Mount Vernon.

Federal District Judge Casper Platt said that many Mount Vernon citizens and bank officials had urged probation, rather than a jail term, for Williamson.

Platt said that full restitution of the money had been made, and that Williamson had a "fine record."

The probation was for three years.

Claims School Post, Sues Board Members

MARION, Ill. (U.P.)—Ernest Arms of Johnston City this week continued to claim the position of superintendent of the Crab Orchard Unit School District 3 while he awaited the school board's answer to his lawsuits for a court writ to reinstate him and for a 120,000 judgment against two school board members.

Although the board demoted Arms in June and named Stephen Clark, former Pittsburg principal, to succeed him as superintendent, Arms has continued to report regularly at the school at Crab Orchard to assert his claim to the $5,000 a year job.

When school opened Aug. 30 he refused to accept his new assignment as principal of the grade school at Paulton.

Arms claims his Crab Orchard job under the tenure law and has sued the board members, Theodore Parks and Raymond Koblner, for $50,000 each, charging slander, and for $10,000 each, charging he received bodily injury from the two.

He seeks the slander judgment on charges that the board members accused him of mismanagement, lying and falsifying school records, and asks judgment for injuries in charges he was assaulted by the two during a conference in the Crab Orchard school building Oct. 2, 1954.

He is represented in the lawsuits by Atty. Charles D. Winters and Atty. Ralph W. Harris of Marion.

He was fired on Nov. 6, 1954, by the board on charges of general incompetence and making errors in keeping of books, but appealed the dismissal to circuit court, where he won a ruling from Judge Harold L. Zimmerman which ordered the board to reinstate him.

A Carmi man and his 16-year-old girl companion who were wanted here for writing two bad checks have been sentenced at Poplar Bluff, Mo., where they were caught doing the same thing, county authorities here were informed.

The two, Gilbert Gail Dalton and Ida May Fleischman, were sought by local authorities in connection with writing bad checks at the Stricklin-Taylor store and Dotty Shop on Aug. 19.

Dalton was given a three-year sentence for forgery and the girl was sentenced to one year, then placed on probation to her husband, who is in the service.

Democrats, Republicans Warm Up for '56 Campaign on Two Key Issues

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Democrats and Republicans warmed up today for the 1956 campaign on two likely key issues—farm prices and proposed budget-balancing defense cuts.

Leading Democrats, from former President Truman down, charged that the administration is weakening national defense to achieve an election-year tax cut.

They also belabored the administration's farm program, even as state GOP chairmen marked it high on their list of topics to discuss with President Eisenhower in Denver today. Republican leaders have conceded that falling farm prices are their most vulnerable point at present.

Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney (D-Okla.) charged that it is "highly dangerous" for the administration to "take the first change in Soviet manners as an occasion to cut our military strength—and then to take it all out of the Air Force."

Monroney aimed his fire at reports that the Treasury wants Pentagon officials to cut defense spending this fiscal year by $1,700,000,000 to help balance the budget. Most of the proposed cut would come out of spending for new airplanes, a spokesman said.

Monroney told a reporter that the reported cut came "when the ink is hardly dry" on stories that we have lost our air superiority to Russia.

"If we are going to furnish leadership to the world, we have a responsibility not to cut our strength," he said.

Mr. Truman said Friday in Chicago that the administration is "crippling" national defense to pave the way for a 1956 tax cut.

The former President said the plan would involve "grave danger to our safety here and be disastrous to our allies abroad."

But Adm. Arthur W. Radford, conferring with Mr. Eisenhower in Denver, told newsmen that military spending would not be cut enough to change "basic military programs." He disagreed with Mr. Truman's estimate of the effect of the cuts.

OIL REPORT: Wildcat Test In Raleigh Twp. Listed Hot Spot

Taken from the Robertson Tri-State Oil Report
A wildcat operation in Section 4 of Raleigh township is listed as a hot spot in the Tri-State oil picture.

It is Ted Lindsay's Sammy Joe Turner No. 1, a wildcat two miles away from any other production, and its legal description is SW SE NE, 4-8-66.

Completion work has been started to test the Cypress at 2659-66 and Paint Creek at 2754-70. A two-hour drill stem test at 2657-76 recovered 230 feet of clean oil, 65 feet of oil cut mud, with bottom hole pressure 1135.

Ten completions are listed in the latest report and of these there are five oil wells, three dry holes and two operations in Tate where the operators aren't putting out any information.

Stelle's Marion Fox No. 1, SE SE NW, 19-9-76 (Cottage), revealed a producer last week in an independent report by The Register, is in the list. It made an oil well in the O'Hara with initial production of 100 barrels per day on pump.

The "tite Tate" holes are C. E. Brehm's Iber V. Hall No. 2, SW SE SW SE, 19-7-56, and his Gill Community No. 2, NW NE NW, 30-7-56, where he tested the Aux Vases.

Dry and abandoned were Stelle's Chicago-Harrisburg Coal No. 1, SW SE NW, 10-9-66; Foote's Josephine Bertino No. 3, NE NE NE, 34-8-66; and Delwood's Kenton No. 1, SW NE SW, 19-7-56.

U. S. Envoy at Geneva Told 29 Can Leave Now

Announcement Made by Chinese Red Negotiator

GENEVA, Switzerland (U.P.)—Communist China agreed today to release all American civilians "held in jail or under house arrest... within a few days."

Chinese Communist negotiator Wang Ping-nan issued a communique "informing" American Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson that 29 American civilians known to be in Red China are free to leave.

They will be sent to Hong Kong, on the start toward repatriation, Wang said.

Wang's announcement came four days after he had announced that 12 additional Americans would be freed.

Johnson announced simultaneously today that Chinese students in the United States were free to return to their homeland if they desired.

Wang announced that Britain had been named as Red China's agent to aid in repatriating the Americans.

Johnson said India had been appointed to "assist" any Chinese students who wanted to leave the United States.

Informed Western observers said that Johnson's own strong demands for the release of the Americans were helped because the Chinese believed their "concessions" would put them in a better position to bargain on trade and other issues with the United States.

Wang informed Johnson that: 1. "The people's republic of China recognizes that Americans in the people's republic of China who desire to return to the United States are entitled to do so and declares that it has adopted and will further adopt appropriate measures so that they can expeditiously exercise their right of return."

2. "The government of the United Kingdom (Great Britain) will be invited to assist in the return to the United States of those Americans who desire to do so."

Johnson, in behalf of the United States, informed Wang that: "The United States recognizes that Chinese in the United States who desire to return to the people's republic of China are entitled to do so and declares that it has adopted and will further adopt measures so that they can exercise their right to return."

"The government of the republic of India will be invited to assist in the return to the people's republic of China those Chinese who desire to do so."

A total of 24 bills from the ransom are now known to have been recovered, 16 in Chicago. All are $20 bills. None of the $10 bills included in the missing $303,000 of the $600,000 ransom has been found here.

"INSURANCE-WISE"

by
BILL GHENT

Today one of our clients raised a most interesting question in connection with her daughter's preparations for attending college.

It seems that during the process of packing, it occurred to the mother that the daughter had several thousand dollars worth of personal property which she was taking with her to college and it also occurred to her mother at the same time that in the event of a total loss on these items the family would indeed be seriously inconvenienced.

Therefore, she immediately called The Robertson-Ghent Insurance Agency to inquire how to obtain the best possible protection at the lowest possible price.

It was unusually easy to answer this question because, unknown to this mother, the father and I were in the process of converting the existing insurance to a Homeowners Type C Policy. This policy of course is an all risk policy and the all risk coverage on personal property applies to all personal property owned, worn or used by the named insured and members of the named insured's family of the same household while in all situations anywhere in the world.

I recited the foregoing section of the policy to the mother, and she said, "That's just exactly what we need."

Midwest Top Egg Producer

Twelve midwestern states produce more than half the eggs in the nation. On most farms egg production is a minor enterprise, and eggs are marketed in a wide variety of ways.

That's the situation as reported in the publication, "Egg Supply and Marketing in the North Central Region," issued jointly by agricultural colleges in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin. It was compiled and written by Emer Broadbent and M. I. Zawadzki, University of Illinois farm economists.

The region produces 40 per cent more eggs than it consumes. Most of the surplus production occurs in two areas. One is west of Chicago to the Minnesota-Dakota line. The other is bounded by Chicago, Detroit, Toledo and Cleveland.

These areas have larger flocks and produce more eggs per square mile than others in the region.
They also sell more eggs on grade, have more eggs picked up at the farm and sell more eggs direct to institutions. Eggs bought by grade average 4 to 6 cents a dozen more than current-receipt prices.
Around these two areas is another area that supplies a moderate surplus. It has more heavy breeds of chickens and smaller flocks. It sells a larger percentage of eggs to local produce markets and sells fewer on grade. This is the area that supplies most eggs to buyers.

The third area is around the fringe of the region. It has still smaller flocks and more heavy breeds. It sells mostly to retail grocery stores. Production varies widely with the season, resulting in low average prices.

This publication is available from any of the colleges in the region.

Observe Safety Rules in Operating Machinery on Farms

You can reduce accidents in using farm machinery if you and your operators will observe the safety rules set up for farm machines, says O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois safety specialist.

The farm operator who disre-gards safety precautions is really asking for trouble. Manufacturers have gone a long way in providing safety features on their machines.
The manufacturer has placed shields over chains, sprockets and gears. But it is up to the operator to see that these shields are kept in place while the machine is in use.

The manufacturer has also placed warning signs on machines where there is danger of injury to the operator. These signs must be observed if they are to protect you.

Kammlade to Speak At SIBA Meeting

The Southern Illinois Breeding association's 10th annual meeting will be held Thursday, Sept. 22, at Brees, Ill. The principal speaker at this meeting will be Dr. W. G.
Kammlade, the associate director of extension. The open house portion of the meeting will be held at the Bull farm, one mile west of Brees on U. S. 50 where visitors will be able to view the office, laboratory, and bulls of the association. Registration for the attendance prizes of a $100.00 and a $25.00 bond will be held prior to noon.

Dr. Kammlade, former professor of animal science at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, was appointed associate director of the Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics effective Sept. 1, 1949.

He has been a member of the College of Agriculture staff since 1915, when he was appointed assistant in the department of animal science.

Dr. Kammlade has been widely recognized for his work as chairman of the committee in charge of the 5,000 acre Dixon Springs Experiment Station, located in Pope county in southern Illinois.
In this position, he has been responsible for the general supervision and coordination of all research studies conducted at the station. These studies have been designed primarily to determine the most efficient, practical, and profitable kind of agricultural program for Southern Illinois.

IAA Policy Meeting Here Sept. 14

The Illinois Agriculture association will hold a district policy development meeting in Harrisburg at the city hall on Wednesday, Sept. 14, beginning at 10 a. m. This will be one of 15 district meetings to be held throughout the state.

Subjects to be discussed at all the meetings include national agricultural policy, tax assessments, agricultural research, school problems, toll roads and other state issues. Policy development is the procedure the Farm Bureau organization follows each fall in getting farmer thinking on issues affecting agriculture. Opinions of farmers are adopted into formal resolutions at the annual meeting of the statewide Farm Bureau, the IAA.

The IAA's 41st annual meeting will be held Nov. 14-17 in Chicago.

This Week at DIXON SPRINGS

University of Illinois Experiment Station

(A roundup of the week's work, activities, and observations at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbs in Southern Illinois, prepared by the Station's staff.)

Coming Cattle Sale
October 6 is an important date for southern Illinois farmers. That day about 1,200 head of feeder calves and yearlings will be sold at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station. These cattle will be fresh from farms and will be acceptable in quality and health. Harry Russell and Dick Carlisle, extension livestock specialists from the University of Illinois, will sort them into uniform lots.

Cattle feeders should find the type of cattle they want at this sale. According to Bob Webb, Station superintendent, "Southern Illinois is cattle-growing country and a growing cattle country."

Research Methods Improved
The laboratory of the Station has a new addition—a spectrophotometer. This gadget will be a great aid to Station research in determining the amounts and kinds of about 46 elements that may be present in animal and plant tissues and in soils.

Wallace Anderson, laboratory technician, explains that this machine has a flame attachment — a small version of a welding torch — in which are burned prepared solutions of the material being tested.
Each element burns with different colors and different wave lengths, so Anderson can determine which element is present and, by comparing it with standard solutions, how much of it is present.

This machine, complicated as it is, should reveal many secrets about the effects of rations on animals and the effects of treatments and fertilizers on plants and soils.

Making Sheep Pastures For Next Year
A group of farmers from Brownstown, Illinois, visited the Station the last of August. One of the things they saw was the preparation of lamb fattening pasture for next year. A field of "grazed-off"

Sudan grass was being disked and roller seeded to a mixture of eight pounds of red clover and two pounds of Ladino. After soil tests had been made, three tons of lime stone per acre was spread on the field.

"Shorty" Bailey, chief disk-er, disked the seeded to mix in the limestone and work up the mulch of straw and trash on the surface.
Following "Shorty's" operation, 200 pounds of 48 percent phosphate and 100 pounds of 60 percent potash were spread per acre from a low spreader. This starter fertilizer was then worked into the soil.
The final operation was seeding the clover. With the help of Mother Nature, this pasture should fatten lambs for next year's June market.

Controlling Giant Foxtail?
The tie we refer to above was heavily infested with giant foxtail George McKibben, crops and soils expert at the Station, hoped that the foxtail could be controlled by tillage and proper cropping. He tried it, and so far there is little soil and compacting the soil with a lawn roller or similar tool.

The mixture may be scattered either by hand or with a seeder—cyclone, horn, or regular lawn seeder obtainable at a hardware or seed store. Divide the seed into two lots, seeding one portion lengthwise and the other crosswise to obtain even distribution.

Next, rake in the seed lightly and keep the soil moist. If rains are not adequate, sprinkle the lawn generously each day for a week.
The sprinkling may be reduced to twice weekly by the second week.

Proper care is important, particularly the first year. Do not mow the young grass until it is as high as the lawn mower will handle. Cut fairly high and leave the clippings to serve as a mulch to protect young plants and keep up soil fertility. Keep down any weeds that may show up. Do not worry if the legumes predominate in early stages of the lawn. Bluegrass will predominate later of its own accord.

A good seed bed is essential.
Work the soil into fine condition, mixing the fertilizer well into the

Number of Farm People Decreasing

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, Ill. —
The number of people on Illinois farms is decreasing, says C. L. Folse, University of Illinois farm sociologist. Though the state's population has grown 461,000 since 1940, its farm population has decreased 66,000.

Prof. Folse says the trend has been under way for many years.
One reason is that modern machinery and improved technology make it possible for fewer farmers to produce more. Increased efficiency in agriculture, as in industry, means more for all and a higher standard of living, he explains.

See Membership Hikes In County Farm Bureaus

CHICAGO — Late summer campaigns are expected to swell the membership of the County Farm Bureaus and the Illinois Agricultural Association.

This announcement came today from Otto Steffey, president of the IAA, the statewide Farm Bureau organization.

Steffey said membership in the largest farm organization in Illinois now is 202,276 farm families, an increase of 884 farm families during the past year.

The farm family is the unit of membership in Farm Bureau.

"By annual meeting time, Nov.
14, we expect several County Farm Bureaus to set records," Steffey concluded.

Rev. Ralph Longshore, superintendent of adult work, Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., will be the speaker at the service Sunday evening at the McKinley Avenue Baptist church.

Rev. Longshore will be in this vicinity to attend the State Sunday school convention of Illinois Baptists which will be held at the First Baptist church in Marion Sept. 12-13. He is to be adult conference leader, and Rev. J. D. McCarty, pastor of McKinley church, who heard him at Ridgecrest Baptist assembly this summer, states that he is a most able speaker.

A large number is expected to attend the services at the local church this Sunday, which is the beginning of the fall revival.

Rev. McCarty is to preach at the Sunday morning service and the evangelistic team will be present Monday night.

Rev. Howard White, a native of Herrin and graduate of Southern Illinois university, will be the evangelist and Jim Williams of Harrisburg will be the song leader. Rev. White is presently located at Fort Worth, Texas, where he is attending seminary.

The revival will continue through Sept. 25, with services each evening at 7:30. The public is given a special invitation to attend.

Annual Homecoming at Dorrisville Baptist Sunday

The Dorrisville Missionary Baptist church will observe its annual homecoming Sunday. A good program of worship and fellowship has been planned by the church and a welcome to all former members and friends is extended to come home for this special occasion.

Rev. L. G. Hartley, a former pastor now serving with the Graham Street Baptist church in Carbondale, will be the homecoming speaker and special music will be given by the Dorrisville Quartette. Dinner will be enjoyed at the church during the noon hour. There will be no evening services, according to the pastor, Rev. Wm. B. Fuson.

Thirty-two miles from Philadelphia, Pa., is Kennett Square, the greatest mushroom-growing center in the world.

FOOTBALL FORUM NO. 3:

Same Old Story on Coast— UCLA and Southern Cal

Third of a series
By LYNN O. WALDORF
Head Coach, California
BERKELEY, Calif. —(NEA)— Unquestionably the strongest teams in the Pacific Coast Conference are UCLA and Southern California.

These are quite a way ahead of the rest.

Stanford is a legitimate third choice, and anything can happen from there on down. Washington State might be stronger than anticipated because of experience.
Washington, I would think, should finish about half way up.

The UCLA lost some fine linemen, but their second and third forward walls played almost as much as the starters. Hardman Curren at guard and Ronnie Loud at end are outstanding. In Bob Davenport they have an All-America fullback.

At last report, Ronnie Knox was only third string tailback, certainly an indication of awesome strength.

The UCLA-Maryland game, Sept.
24, might have a strong bearing on the national championship.

Southern Cal has fine personnel, augmented by the strongest freshman team in years. The Trojans rate halfback Jon Arnett with the greatest runners they've ever had.
Leon Clarke at end and Orlando Ferrante at guard are in the same class. Watch out for a sophomore fullback, C. R. Roberts.

Stanford, largely a passing team, past several years, apparently will have good running strength.
Returning is Bill Tarr, the fullback who led the conference in rushing last year. Incidentally, their undefeated freshman team last year beat our frosh, 60-0.

Washington State has 22 lettermen and will work out of the split-T, guided by the experienced quarterback, Frank Sarno. Tom Gunnari is a power up front.

Washington has good backs, headed by Mike Monroe at full and Sandy Lederman at quarter.
Whether their many junior college transfers will give them sufficient line strength will not be known until mid-season.

Oregon was hard hit by graduation, as any team must be when a boy like quarterback George Shaw departs. The Ducks lost other key men, too, have only 11 lettermen returning, but find some hope in a batch of service veterans coming back.

Oregon State, now operating the UCLA prothro, had some good young players last year but is not very deep.

NEA'S PROBABLE
ALL-COAST TEAM
E—Leon Clarke, Southern Cal.
E—John Stewart, Stanford
T—John Neshy, COP
T—John Witte, Oregon State
G—Hardman Curren, UCLA
G—Tom Gunnari, Wash. St.
C—Steve Palmer, UCLA
QB—Sandy Lederman, Wash.
HB—Jon Arnett, So. California
FB—Jerry Drew, California
RB—Bob Davenport, UCLA

Idaho, always something of an unknown, upset Washington State for the first time in years in '54 and has an excellent guard in Elvind Resa.

California lost heavily at quarterback (Paul Larson) and center (Matt Hazeltine). Injuries deprived us of tackle Harry Gilharducci and guard Joe Oliva. We have but 12 lettermen, the lowest number in my years at Berkeley.
Fullback Jerry Drew, guard Don Gilkey and end Jim Carmichael are dependable.

The Coast has a couple of independent schools which bear watching. College of the Pacific, which has the temerity to play UCLA, is fortified by the rugged line, of 1954 and an attack built around passer Bill Jacobs.

San Jose State has a veteran team, bolstered by the return of Joe Ulin, a phenomenal player dea soph but out for the season in 1954 after an injury on the first scrimmage play.

ence by Ed Price of Texas.

Eldorado Merchants

To Play Grayville
At Raleigh Sunday

The Eldorado Merchants will be host to the Grayville Lions Sunday in a game to be played on the town park diamond in Raleigh.
Game time will be 2:30 p. m.

The Grayville team has a good record, having won 16 and lost only three games this season. The team is composed of players from Gray-ville and Mt. Carmel. The battery for the Lions probably will be Tate or Jones, pitch, with Donley the catcher.

Eldorado will start either Guy Woodard or Sandusky on the mound, and Eubanks behind the plate.

Eldorado players are asked to be at the diamond by one o'clock to take pre-game practice.

The anaconda of South America is said to be the world's largest snake.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

Galatia high school plans to field a cross country team this season and the boys started running Thursday afternoon. Coach Glenn Dunn is anxious to schedule some meets in the near future and any school with a cross country team should contact Dunn. The Galatia team has its top performer from last year back—in fact he should be coming back for two seasons after this. Star of the 1954 team was a freshman, Ken Cockrum. He was undefeated in dual competition tasting his first loss in the district meet.

Apparently most of the non-football-playing high schools in this area are not planning to participate in competitive sports until the basketball season gets underway.

Coach Darwin Valter at Shawnee-town states he has no plans for cross country, but the boys will play some softball or baseball, strictly on a physical education basis.

Ridgeway is about the same as Shawneetown. Coach Bob Dallas is running a baseball program at Ridgeway, but not with the idea of playing other schools. "We may schedule a game or two, but right now we are just practicing. I want to see our prospects for next spring's regular baseball program," Dallas said recently.

Galatia high school, the school the longest distance away on the Eldorado football schedule, has ten lettermen on its grid squad of 42 candidates. Returning are two backs, Don Miller and Arthur Kaha; two ends, Byron Marshall and Phil Robinson; a guard, Phil Farrow; a center, Wilbur Dunker; four tackles, Paul Baur, Joe Hornbeck, Ken Pittman and Fred Stevens. Baur is the biggest man on the squad at 230 pounds.

Time was when Eldorado travelled all over southern Illinois for its games, with trips to Olney, Albion, Cairo, Metropolis, Anna and other points north and south. Now only Cairo, Anna and Fairfield are the only schools from a distance remaining on the schedule. Benton, West Frankfort, and McLeansboro have been added to the schedule in the last year or so, greatly reducing traveling.

Dick Nordmeyer, sophomore tackle at the University of Illinois is a former Murphysboro high school student. He now makes his home in Tucson, Ariz., and after moving out west was an All-American prep tackle in 1953.

Goose hunting in Horseshoe Lake, which has come in for unfor-table publicity in the past, is discussed in the September issue of Sports Affair. The article is written by Charles Gilman, formerly of Elroy. He gives the hunting program a pat on the back. "I feel that Alexander county has made a substantial contribution in the management of Canada geese," the writer states.

FIGHT RESULTS
NEW YORK (Madison Square garden) 48—Cisco Andrade, 135, Compton, Calif., outpointed Orlando Zulueita, 135, Cuba (10).

RECOVERING—Vic Wertz, Indian first baseman who was stricken with polio in August, was accompanied by his wife, Lucille, as he met the press at Cleveland hospital after being released from isolation. Wertz said he hopes to be back in uniform before the season is over. (NEA Telephoto)

Bull Dogs Play Practice Tilt Under Lights

Squad Prepares For Murphysboro Game Friday Night

The Harrisburg Bulls football squad practiced under the Taylor field lights last night as they prepared for the invasion of Murphysboro next Friday evening.

From the way the first team showed up, it appeared that more than a week will be needed, too.
Although there are some good boys around, nothing appeared jelled last night.

Frankly, although the first team ran to six touchdowns to nary a tally for the second eleven, it never got a definite offense to rolling all night.

And if there is not lots of hard work for the squad next week—learning plays and acquiring polish—it'll be a hard time coming next Friday evening.

Tony Deal, the quiet type in past years, is showing it up and showing leadership on the field this se-son, which should help keep the boys moving, once they learn how to move. And Big Tony showed his power and speed on more than one instance during the session.

About the third play after the squad of 32 varsity players went through their calisthenics, Deal took the ball and raced 44 yards to the 12. He then passed to end Jim Williams in the end zone. Minutes later the first team recovered a fumble on the 10 and Freddie McKenzie galloped 10 yards into the end zone.

Later Tony grabbed a bouncing fumble and raced 22 yards to score.
Then he made touchdowns on a run of 15 yards after the second team fumbled, on a three-yard plunge after a pass interception a couple of plays earlier, and on a gallop of 42 yards after another pass interception.

Caluetti started these teams:
First: Jim Williams and Joe Dor-ricks ends, Everett Evans and Ken Price tackles, Richard Hess and Jay Waite guards, Ron Williams center, Wayne Hefner quarterback, Fred McKenzie and Jack Wright fullbacks and Beal fullback. He also used three second string backfield men, Mike Hays, Jack Foster and Trevor Whiteside in the first string backfield at times.

Second: Bennie Fulkerson and Bill Henshaw at ends, Dickie Drue and Dannie James at tackles, Stacy Williams and Lindell Stacy at guards, Ronnie Vick at center, Mike Hays at quarterback, Foster and Whiteside at fullbacks and John Ziegler at fullback. Also used were Marvin Harlow and Melvin Hicks at ends, Harold Guard at center, Bob Shewmake, Phillip Morse, Jim Cummins in the backfield, and Richard Cantrell, Ronnie Reynolds, Bruce Bishop and Jim Molinero in the line.

Officials were Louie Beltz, Ira Slattery and Lee Garand.

Tittle Leads 49'ers to 31-10 Win Over Rams

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quarterback Y. A. Tittle, his veteran running attack benched with injuries, passed the San Francisco Forty-Niners to an easy 31-10 victory tonight over the Los Angeles Rams in an exhibition contest in Memorial Coliseum before a crowd of 65,633.

The Rams, badly outclassed, never were ahead although they left the field at halftime with a 10-10 tie.

Without the power running of Hutlin, Hugh McElhenney and Joe (Jet) Perry, the Forty-Niners still looked good. Rookie Carroll Hardy at halfback and Bud Laughlin, substituting for ailing Perry at fullback, and halfback John Hunsy Johnson, cut loose with the aerials of Tittle.

The Rams appeared hopelessly out of it after veteran signal caller Norman Van Brocklin, last year's passing leader, was taken out of the game in the first period with a strained throwing hand.

Tittle passed for one touchdown, and set up all the others with his tosses, aided and abetted by Ram roughing penalties and fumbles.

Legion to Play Uniontown Sunday

The Harrisburg Legion baseball team will entertain the Uniontown Ky. Cardinals at the town park diamond Sunday afternoon.

This will mark the fourth meeting of the season between the two teams, with Harrisburg holding a 2-1 edge to date. Earlier the Legion won by scores of 10-5 and 3-2.
Labor Day Uniontown was the victor 7-3.

Don Wallace or Bill McNew will hurl for the Legion with Dick Romonosky the catcher. For Uniontown "Big Jim" Bumpus is the likely pitcher and Harris will catch.

Game time is 2:15 p. m. Legion players are asked to come out early for pre-game practice.

Stars to Play at Henderson, Ky., Sunday

The Harrisburg Stars will travel to Henderson, Ky., Sunday seeking their 11th win of the season and their fifth in a row.

The Stars held a decision over Henderson in a game played here earlier in the season.

Game time is 2 p. m. daylight savings time. All players are asked to be at the town park diamond by 10:15 a. m. to make the trip.

Haas Takes Lead In Cavalcade Of Golf Tourney

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J. (AP)—Another dark horse took the lead at the halfway point of the $50,000 Cavalcade of Golf tournament today while the tourney's favorites were still having trouble with the Shickamaxon Country Club's course.

Freddy Haas, the golf glove and club salesman from Claremont, Calif., took over the lead with a 70-67-137, replacing first-day co-leaders Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., and Walker Inman of Augusta, Ga. Furgol had a 72 to go with his first-day 68 and Inman, who had a 78 for a total of 146.

Two strokes behind Haas was Jerry Barber of Los Angeles, who shot a 69 to give him a total of 139.

It was an old story for Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the tournament favorite—putting troubles. Snead missed six putts of five feet or less and needed 35 strokes on the greens to card a 72 that landed him in a tie for ninth place with 143.

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., another pre-tournament favorite, stayed close with a par 70 to give him a 141 and a tie with Gene Littler, the former amateur champion from Palm Springs, Calif. Littler also posted a 71-70—141 score for the first two days of the tournament which carries a $10,000 prize for the winner.

Seixas, Trabert Meet Aussie Pair In U.S. Open Finals

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—Defending champion Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert, hoping for vengeance victories against tremendous odds, were America's last hopes today of keeping the U. S. tennis championship trophy from taking a long trip to Australia along with the Davis Cup.

They faced the razor-sharp Austrians — Seixas against caddy Ken Rosewall and Trabert against mauling Lew Hoad—in the exact order of play in the U. S. semifinals as on the opening day of the Davis Cup challenge round on which both Americans were whipped in four sets.

The Aussies, however, have lost a bit of their competitive edge while both Seixas and Trabert have been nursing their bruises toward a peek for today's showdowns.

In the women's division, the semi-finals matched 17-year old Barbara Breit of North Hollywood, Calif., against Pat Ward of England and defending champion Florence Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., against Dorothy Head Knox of New York.

Miss Breit, the National Junior champion, scored a smashing upset Friday over Mrs. Beverly Baker Freid of Long Beach, Calif., 8-6, 4-6, 6-0, and thereby became the tournament favorite. Miss Hart although the champion and seeded first, has been unimpressive all through the tournament this year.

Indians Beat Red Sox, 3-1, To Maintain Lead as Yanks Defeat White Sox, 5-4

Don Mossi and Ray Narleski hang around together so much that everyone calls 'em "the daily double," but the way they're clicking for the first-place Cleveland Indians, they look a lot more like a sure thing pennant parlay.

First Mossi helps Narleski out and then it's Narleski to Mossi's aid.

On Thursday night, Narleski batted out Mossi in the eighth inning against the Orioles. Friday night, Mossi rescued Narleski in the ninth inning against the Red Sox and nailed down a 3-1 victory that enabled the Indians to remain a half game ahead of the pack.

Bob Lemon was the winner but he tied in the eighth and gave way to Narleski, who made his 55th appearance of the season.

Narleski faltered with two out in the ninth when he walked inchitterer Faye Throneberry and yel-ded a single to Billy Goodman.

With the tying runs on base, in strolled Mossi, making his 54th relief appearance, and promptly struck out Billy Klaus to end the game.

Win On Homers
All Cleveland's runs were the result of home runs. Al Smith hit his 22nd to tie the score at 1-1 in the sixth inning; Ralph Kiner smashed his 17th to put Cleveland ahead for good in the seventh and Al Rosen belted his 21st for an insurance marker in the eighth.

Two homers by part-time first baseman Joe Collins played a big part in 5-4 victory by the Yankees over the White Sox. A seventh inning double by Yogi Berra drove in the run which eventually proved the margin of victory but Collins' two blasts helped the Yanks to a 4-0 lead that eased their path to triumph. The victory, credited to starter Don Larsen, kept the Bronx Bombers a half game off the pace while the defeat dropped the back-place White Sox 3 1/2 games back.

Del Crandall's 24th homer in the seventh inning powered the Braves to a 3-2 triumph over the Pirates.
Veteran Warren Spahn gave up eight hits for his 14th victory.

The Cardinals scored their highest total of runs since the first week of the season to beat the Phillies, 11-2, behind Willard Schmidt's six-hit pitching.

Southpaw Bill Wight scattered eight Detroit hits in pitching last-place Baltimore to an 8-3 victory.
The Orioles hammered Ned Garver and Dick Marlowe for 11 hits, including three by Sal Abrams.

Mickey McDermott pitched a six hitter and drove in three runs as Washington nipped Kansas City, 6-5, in the first game of a two-night twin-bill but the Athletics took the nightcap, 7-6, despite two homers by Roy Sievers.

In the already settled National league race, the Brooklyn Dodgers, coming fresh off a pennant-clinching celebration, lost the opener of a double-header to the Cubs, 11-4, but bounced back to win the second game, 16-9.

Newcombe Loses Fifth Cocky Don Newcombe, who may open the World Series for the Dodgers, was blasted for nine hits in the two innings he pitched in the opener and wound up with his fifth loss. Ernie Banks smashed his 41st homer off Newcombe while Dee Fondy, Eddie Miksis and Ransom Jackson also hit for the circuit off him. The Dodgers collected only eight hits in the nightcap but among them were two homers by Don Zimmer, which accounted for six runs, and homers by Walt Moryn and Clem Labine.

Left-hander Joe Nuxhall of Cincinnati limited the Giants to four hits in beating them, 5-0, for his 16th victory. Wally Post poled his 38th homer off loser Don Liddle in the second inning and Gus Bell smacked his 25th with two on in the sixth.

Ferris wheels twirl against the sky... children munch long streamers of pink and white cotton candy... and there are apples on a stick and prize competitions, to say nothing of the animals with their blue ribbon awards.

The fair is part of summer... when crowds through the old grounds on the far side of the railroad tracks and girls hold hands with their fellows and older people smile, and younger ones literally have a field day.

God smiles on fellowship such as this. And in His Church, he offers the greatest fellowship of all. Here men may join together in prayer and worship, giving thanks for blessings, finding consolation in sorrow, renewing their strength, reaffirming their happiness through faith.

'Struggle for Survival'

Nehemiah 4:6-23; 12:27
GOLDEN TEXT: "Then I told them of the hand of God which was good upon me; as also the king's words which he had spoken unto me. And they said, 'Let us rise up and build.' So they strengthened their hands for his good work." (Neh. 2:18)

INTRODUCTION — It was a great day for Israel when the Temple was rebuilt in Jerusalem. The people gathered together there on Mt. Zion and rejoiced and praised God for helping them in this great accomplishment.

However, there could never be perfect happiness and peace in Jerusalem until the wall had been rebuilt. To them the destroyed walls was a symbol of disgrace. They were downhearted, and had no incentive to carry on. The God stirred the heart of Nehemiah, who was a cupbearer to King Artaxerxes. He placed a burning desire in his heart to lead his people in a great building program. (God still puts that burning desire in the hearts of many of his people today.) Also, God caused King Artaxerxes to look with favor upon Nehemiah and this project.

I. A MIND TO WORK (4:6)
Here is a secret to the success of the whole building program. "The people had a mind to work." Any preacher, or leader, is doomed to defeat before he ever starts, if the people do not "have a mind to work."

Any church family can build any building they need, if "they have a mind to work." We have seen the almost impossible come to pass where God's people pitched in with enthusiasm and began to work. When we do all we can, God takes over and does the rest. Nehemiah knew how to work, how to inspire, how to lead and how to pray. All this, combined with a people "who had a mind to work," got the job done.

II OPPOSITION DEFEATED (4:7-9)

There is always opposition to anything worth-while. Nehemiah had those who opposed his building program. What did he do? He prayed for them. He prayed for courage and guidance. His prayer was answered.

Sometimes well-meaning folks oppose a good thing. Pray for them, and you will often have the joy of seeing them converted to the new project and become enthusiastic in their support. This was Nehemiah's experience.

III. THEY WORKED (4:15; 21:23)
Their task was not easy. Building never is. Sometimes men must work day after day. Often they must work late into the night in donating their labor to God's work. Wives and children sometimes suffer loneliness as a result. However, in the end there is blessing and rejoicing for all who have paid the price.

Nehemiah made provision for the protection of his laborers. They worked from sun-up until the stars appeared. They had a task to do for God, and they did it with enthusiasm.

CONCLUSION: THE DAY OF DEDICATION — (12:27-43)
Dedication of a building to God is always a great day. It is cause for much rejoicing, and should never be overlooked or taken lightly. The people should come together and thank God for His blessings. Their friends should be invited in to show them what God has done.

So it was with Nehemiah and his people. They set a day of dedication of the wall. They rejoiced in the completion of a work well done. They found strength in their joy. Any church family can do anything they set their hearts to do. God loves to bless people who trust Him!
